RG104 E-1 Box 172

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., July 31, 1391.

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

The Assayer of this Bureau forwards you to-day a package containing 28.68 ounces of gold and 214.20 ounces of silver.

You will allow the coining value of the gold, and for 206.20 ounces of the silver you will allow the coining value for silver dollars, and for 8 ounces the subsidiary value. No deductions are to be made upon this bullion.

I will thank you to return the value of the same as early as practicable.

Very respectfully,

R. E. Preston

Acting Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 172

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.
July 31, 1891

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

The Assayer of this Bureau forwards you to-day a package containing 28.68 ounces of gold and 214.20 ounces of silver.

You will allow the coining value of the gold, and for 206.20 ounces of the silver you will allow the coining value for silver dollars, and for 8 ounces the subsidiary value. No deductions are to be made upon this bullion.

I will thank you to return the value of the same as early as practicable.

Very respectfully,
R.E. Preston
Acting Director.